

The government of this country needs to continue to support and protect small privately owned companies from large money hungry monopolies. The small organizations that organized the creation of the internet thus far are being squashed out by this patition and there efforts need to be recognized by the denial of this patition's request.

Thank you